UNFILTERED

YOUR LIFE SCRIPTED BY GOD'S DESIGN

Unfiltered is for the young and the hungry—the ones who refuse to settle for surface-level answers when life demands something deeper.

It's for those young people craving divine truth for the issues that keep their generation up at night.

It's for the dreamer tired of being told to wait their turn. It's for anyone who's ever felt like God must have more to say than what the world has handed down to them.

So here's what we're about: straight talk from God to your generation. No fluff. No filler. No agenda but the truth—uncomfortable when it needs to be, yet always, always filled with faith.

We're not here to tell you what to think. We're here to hand you something rare: a space where you can encounter God and His truth without the performance, without the pressure, and without the filter.

This isn't your grandparents' Christian magazine. This is for you. Right now. At this moment.

Welcome to Unfiltered. Come as you are—the truth is waiting.

Sex, Relationship, AND GOD'S PLAN FOR YOU

In a culture that equates love with physical gratification and treats relationships like disposable commodities, finding clarity feels almost impossible. Every voice around you screams that waiting is outdated, that restraint is repression, and that your desires are the only compass you need.

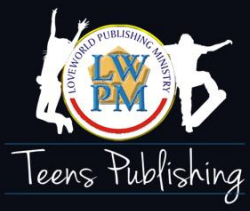

But deep in your spirit, you know there has to be more—a better story, a safer path, and a design that actually works. You long for love that lasts, for a relationship that honors your body, soul, and spirit—and most of all, the Lord."

And that's when the world leans in and whispers, "You can—everyone does it, and it won't hurt anyone." Yet, just as that whisper fades, a louder, more certain voice—breaks through with a loving, protective answer that flips the world's logic upside down: No, you can't!

The real issue here is not about whether you love the person or not; it's about whether or not you're supposed to have sex! The Bible plainly shows that you must not have sex with somebody you're not married to (1 Corinthians 7:1-9). It's called "FORNICATION," and the Bible tells you to flee from it (1 Corinthians 6:17). We live in a world where sex outside of marriage is made to appear normal, right even. No wonder sexual immorality has become one of Satan's tools for destroying people's lives. But you've got to believe and stand by the Word. Throughout the Bible, God's standpoint on sex remains the same: it should be done only in marriage. As God's child, you must decide that doing the Word will be priority to you above any human tradition or trend.

It's No Proof Of Love

God defines love as patient, kind, and not self-seeking. This means that if someone truly loves you, he or she would not insist on having sex with you before marriage—something God expressly speaks against. You'll also not compel someone you love to have sex with you when you're not married to him or her. Sex is no proof of love, so don't let some guy or girl tell you to prove your love for them by sleeping with them.
